THROUGH THE SENATE

Goes the Famous Bill Reorganizing Cincinnati's City Government.

HOT DEBATE PRECEDES ITS PASSAGE.

Measure Providing Equal Pay For Men and Women Lost in the Shuffle—Proceedings in the House.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—The Cincinnati "ripper" bill was first on the senate calendar for third reading and the fact filled the lobby with a throng of people, mostly from Cincinnati. Senator Nippert, the author of the bill, opened with a statement of the bill's provisions. He dwelt upon the conditions in Cincinnati resulting from the deadlock in the present board of city affairs. This, he said, was resulting very seriously, and there was danger that it would be continued by the spring election. It certainly would be if one Democrat and one Republican should be elected. He declared that the mayor had not made a single worthy appointment.

Senator Cohen replied. He based his remarks upon an amendment which he offered, making the proposed new board elective by the people at the April election instead of appointive by the governor. He could not agree with Senator Nippert that the present board was dishonest. It had given economical and efficient government to the city. He called attention to the fact that if the bill passes not for three years will the people of Cincinnati have a chance to choose a governing board of their own.

Senator Cohen called attention to the fact that no request for the passage of the bill had come from the chamber of commerce or the board of trade of Cincinnati; also to the fact that not a single Republican newspaper outside of Cincinnati had asked the passage of the bill.

Senators Long and Brown spoke to the amendment, opposing the bill as reported, and Senator Slebert and Senator Harding spoke for the bill. Senator Harbaugh took middle ground.

Replying to some severe remarks of Senator Cohen upon George B. Cox, Senator Nippert said that Cox was in some sense "a leader of the party" in Cincinnati, but he was not a bad citizen and was not under the ban down there. He compared well with Louis Bernard, who he said was sitting right back of Senator Cohen managing the opposition to the bill, and that Cox had too much tact to go about the streets of Columbus as Bernard was doing offering them money to defeat the Nippert bill.

It was 1:25 p. m. before a vote was reached, Senator Dodge moving the previous question. Senator Cohen's amendment was defeated by the following vote: Nay 18, yea 13. The bill was then passed, 18 Republicans voting for the measure, and 11 Democrats and two Republicans against it.

The Ross bill providing that women employed by any service shall be paid the same compensation as men are paid for the same service was defeated in the senate by a vote of 9 to 11.

House Proceedings.

In the house the following bills were passed: To appropriate $33,000 for the Ohio State university, $24,000 for Miami university and $19,000 for Wilberforce university for 1901, and for 1902 the same amount for each institution; authorizing trustees of Spencer township, Hamilton county, to transfer $1,000 funds; to create an additional police judge for Cleveland; to give probate court of Coshocton county concurrent jurisdiction in divorce, alimony, foreclosure and partition cases.

When the Garrison resolution to investigate trusts came up for consideration, Mr. Price of Athens raised the point of order that the resolution was not in order because its provisions are covered by the Willis resolution now pending before the judiciary committee. Speaker Reynolds ruled that the resolution was out of order because its provisions are embodied in the Willis resolution. Mr. Garrison appealed from the ruling, but the chair was sustained by a vote of 54 to 10.

Mr. LeFevre of Morgan county has a bill prepared to protect purchasers of fruit trees, vines and shrubs against being swindled. It provides that nurserymen must deliver the kinds and varieties of trees represented to the purchaser by agents, and fixing the penalty at $50 to $200 and 30 to 90 days for the first offense, and $75 to $500 and the same period of imprisonment for subsequent offenses.

Mr. Sharp of Fairfield, in response to the request of representatives of various gun clubs, has arranged for a general conference to be had in the house Wednesday evening, Feb. 28, with reference to the 14 or more game bills now pending in the house. The house committee on fish and game and the authors of the various bills will try to get together on one bill that will meet general approval.

The resolution to purchase 1,000 sets of the St. Clair papers at $4 per set was defeated, 75 to 2. Bills were reported favorably as follows: To suppress pool rooms; to exempt from taxation the property of homes for aged women; to regulate train crews, requiring a crew of five on freight trains. The question of female suffrage was made a special order for Feb. 28.

CREATED A STIR.

Racy Testimony Offered in the Clark Alleged Bribery Case.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The senate committee on elections resumed its inquiry into the election of Senator Clark of Montana after a respite of 36 hours. Mr. Edward B. Coyne, judge of the County court of Livingston county, N. Y., testified concerning a conversation he had in New York city last October with Mr. Hewitt, a witness for the prosecution in this case. He said Mr. Hewitt had spoken of the Wellcome disbarment case and in response to an inquiry had said that Wellcome "did not stand a ghost of a chance" and would be disbarred. He said that it did not make any difference whether Wellcome was guilty of the offense charged as Daly owned the court and the case was being conducted with a view to getting testimony in the Clark case that was to come before the United States senate.

Justice Hunt's testimony created a profound sensation. He detailed four different conversations he had had with his family physician, Dr. William Tracy of Helena, in two of which he believed the doctor had attempted to lay before him a proposition to bribe him in the Wellcome disbarment case, which was at that time before the court of which the witness was a member.

American Wheelmen.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—The session of the national assembly of the League of American Wheelmen was devoted entirely to the reading of reports. W. A. Howell of Connecticut, chairman of the committee on credentials, reported 99 proxy votes in addition to the delegates reporting in person. President Thomas J. Keenan, Jr., read a lengthy report and devoted some space to racing. The treasurer, James C. Tattersall, reported receipts from Jan. 1, 1899, to be $62,376.84, disbursements, $60,461.70, balance on hand, $1,915.14.

Stockholders to Act.

Pittsburg, Feb. 15.—Although the suit which H. C. Frick filed to break the binding force of the "Ironclad" agreement and recover from the Carnegie Steel company the market value of his holdings in that concern, is the main line of attack opened by the anti-Carnegie adherents, the minority stockholders who are allied against the policy of Mr. Carnegie, it is said, are certain to follow it up with the suit attacking the validity of the coke contract of the Carnegie company with the H. C. Frick Coke company.

Family Asphyxiated.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Mrs. Jeanette Schwartz and her two children, Lulu, 9 years, and Henrietta, 4 months, were found dead in bed here, the result of asphyxiation. Mrs. Schwartz was the wife of J. T. Schwartz, a saloon-keeper. While he was serving customers in the front of the building, the members of his family, occupying rooms in the rear, were being slowly smothered. It is supposed the jets were accidentally turned on.

Princely Gifts.

Chicago, Feb. 15.—Dr. D. K. Pearsons of Chicago who, during the last 10 years, has given to colleges and charitable institutions gifts amounting to $2,500,000, is about to deed away the remainder of his fortune, in similar bequests. For the maintenance of his wife and himself during the remainder of their lives Dr. Pearsons will stipulate that only an annuity of two per cent. be paid by those who receive his gifts hereafter.

Legally Hanged.

Pottsville, Pa., Feb. 15.—Thomas Brennan of New Philadelphia was hanged for the murder of Harry Elliott, a neighbor and fellow workman, in a colliery. Brennan had some real or imaginary grievance against Elliott, and on the day of the murder he left his work and going to Elliott's home demanded some money he said was due him. Elliott knew nothing of it and Brennan then shot him.

London, Feb. 15.—Lord Chesterfield and Miss Ena Wilson were married in this city. There was a large and fashionable attendance at the ceremony,

BOBS UP IN CONGRESS

Statement of Former Consul Macrum the Text of a Resolution.

AIMED AT THE SECRETARY OF STATE

Bi-metallic Clause of the New Financial Bill Discussed in the Senate—Other Doings of the National Legislature.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Representative Wheeler of Kentucky introduced in the house the following resolution: "Whereas, Charles E. Macrum, late a consul of the United States at Pretoria in the Transvaal republic, over his own signature, charges 'when this (his) mail was finally forwarded to me after Colonel Stowe, the American consul general at Cape Town, had secured its release, I had the humiliation as the representative of the American government of sitting in my office in Pretoria and looking upon envelopes and bearing official seals of the American government opened and officially sealed with a sticker, notifying me that the contents had been read by the censor at Durban,' and,

"Whereas, He further states in the same article, 'When I accepted my post as consul I knew nothing of any secret alliance between America and Great Britain,' therefore, be it

"Resolved, By the house that the secretary of state is directed to inform the house of representatives if said Charles E. Macrum, as consul of the American government, informed the state department that his official mail had been opened and read by the British censor at Durban, and if so, what steps, if any, have been taken to obtain an explanation and apology from the British government.

"Also, he is further directed to inform the house of representatives what truth there is in the charge that a secret alliance exists between the republic of the United States and the empire of Great Britain."

The speaker referred the resolution to the foreign affairs committee.

IN THE SENATE.

Bi-metallic Clause of the Currency Bill Up For Dissection.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The routine business being concluded, the financial bill was laid before the senate, the pending question being the amendment offered by the finance committee and reading as follows:

"Provisions of this act are not intended to place any obstacles in the way of the accomplishment of international bimetallicism, provided the same be secured by concurrent action of the leading commercial nations of the world and at a ratio which shall insure permanence of relative value between gold and silver."

Mr. Hoar (Mass.) said the double standard of gold and silver had not only been accepted by the people, but had been embodied in the constitution itself. But when, by the action of other nations, this country was forced to accept a single standard, it was forced to accept the most valuable metal. We should get the double standard when the opportunity came. There was therefore no pretense or hypocrisy in the pending amendment.

Mr. Morgan (Ala.) denounced the pending amendment as a "miserable makeshift, which is intended to cover the lacerations of a wounded conscience." He declared the bill would return us to the British system of finance.

Mr. Platt (Conn.) said that whatever may be said about imperialism, "or the tolling masses," the issue will be the same as four years ago—whether or not we shall have a silver standard in the United States.

Mr. Cockrell declared that the "crime of '73 was a crime against man, against God, against humanity and against Christianity."

The committee amendment was adopted, 45 to 30.

Macrum's Statement.

Washington, Feb. 15.—Hon. Charles E. Macrum of East Liverpool, O., former United States minister to Pretoria, made public a statement explaining his reason for quitting his post. At the outset he states it was necessary he should return to Washington to inform the American government of the true situation in the Transvaal, something which could not be done from Pretoria, owing to the rigid censorship exercised by the British. All of his official letters were opened by the censors. He charges that the government left him in the position of a British consul and not an American consul. When he arrived at Paris he learned a son of Secretary Hay had been given the consulship at Pretoria. He severely criticized the state department for its alleged pro-British proclivities.

Met Death Bravely.

Philadelphia, Feb. 15.—George Weeks, colored, was hanged in Moyamensing prison for the murder of Alice White, also colored, on Dec. 25, 1898. George H. St. Clair, who was convicted with Weeks for the same murder, was hanged last Thursday. Weeks went to his death bravely and did not show the slightest evidence of fear or nervousness.

OHIO REPUBLICANS

Will Meet in State Convention at Columbus on April 24.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—The Republican state central committee met at the Neil house and made arrangements for the Republican state convention, Chairman M. A. Norris of Youngstown officiating in the chair, and Secretary Peter Durr of Cincinnati at the desk. Columbus was selected as the place of meeting of the convention on motion of Committeeman Kelly of Perry county. Tuesday and Wednesday, April 24 and 25 were chosen as the dates on motion of Committeeman DeWolfe. Hon. Robert M. Nevin of Dayton was selected for temporary chairman of the convention.

After Sheriff Young.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—Former Mayor George J. Karb is on his way to Fayetteville, Ark., to confer with Former Sheriff Wheeler J. Young, who disappeared from Columbus about six weeks ago. If Mr. Young refunds $17,000 which it is said his bondsmen were required to pay, he will be permitted to go his way. If he does not, then he is to be placed under arrest and returned to Columbus.

Preacher Stabbed.

Batavia, O., Feb. 15.—Rev. James Cole, pastor of the colored Methodist church at Felicity, was stabbed in the left breast with a large knife in the hands of William Gatlen. Difference as to religious views was the cause which actuated Gatlen in his crime.

New Incorporations.

Columbus, O., Feb. 15.—Lease's Candy Company, Cincinnati, $10,000; Golden Rod Benefit Club, Sandusky; Columbus & Xenia Traction Company, Xenia, $10,000.

Stabbed With a Needle.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 15.—Mrs. William J. Garland, wife of a saloon keeper in Phoebus, was found murdered in her bed by her husband, when the latter awoke. An autopsy developed the fact that she had been stabbed just below the left breast with a darning needle, and so skillfully was it done that the needle struck the heart in the center, causing instant death. The husband was arrested charged with the crime. He protested his innocence.

Count Will Fight.

New York, Feb. 15.—Count and Countess Boni de Castellane sailed on the French line steamer La Gascogne for France. Both appeared to be in the best of humor as they bade goodbye to the friends who were at the steamship pier to see them off. "I shall attend to the papers which have slandered me when I arrive in Paris," said the count. "After my suit against the Figaro has been settled I shall challenge De Rodays to fight."

Famous German Minister.

Berlin, Feb. 15.—Herr Von Herrfurth, former minister of the interior, is dead. He was the successor of Herr Von Puttkamer, who was dismissed from office by the late Emperor Frederick for reactionary tendencies. Herr Von Herrfurth's greatest work was the passing of the Prussian local government act, which created such a storm among Prussian land owners. He remained only four years in power.

Attacked the Americans.

Manila, Feb. 15.—Insurgent forces, estimated to number 5,000 soldiers, mostly Bolo men, attacked the American garrison in the convent at Daraga, in the province of Albany, during the night of Feb. 5. They were repulsed, however, after they had burned much of the town. One lieutenant, wounded, was the only loss sustained by the Americans.

Democratic Legislators.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 15.—The houses of the Democratic legislature held short sessions and transacted no business of general interest. Senator Triplett withdrew his resolution providing for an adjournment to Frankfort. The committee appointed to investigate conditions at the state capital did not make its report.

Washington, Feb. 15.—The president sent to the senate the nomination of James Allen of Kansas to be commissioner to the international exposition at Paris, also a number of army nominations, including Lieutenant Colonel A. S. Cummins of the Twenty-seventh infantry to be colonel of that regiment

ALL EYES ON ROBERTS

His Force in the Free State About to Attempt Kimberley's Relief.

HOPE RUNNING HIGH IN ENGLAND.

If the British Turn the Trick, Invasion of the Boers' Territory Will Follow—French's Daring Cavalry Raid.

London, Feb. 15.—Intense satisfaction continues dominant in consequence of Field Marshal Lord Roberts' plan of operations in South Africa. There is no further news of the British advances into the Orange Free State, or of activity at the Modder river, but a feeling of quiet confidence prevails that the strong hands of "Bobs Bahadur" and the hero of Khar-toum are shaping matters toward a much needed decisive victory.

This entire move with its concentration of nearly all the British battalions outside Natal and the slender columns under Gatacre and Clements has been brought about by scientific strategy. An army corps and strong auxiliary forces have been massed where the enemy are the weakest and the previous balance of forces in the military problem has been suddenly upset. This column on the Reit river has a promise of potency for the relief of Kimberley and a subsequent advance upon Bloemfontein, and is so great a diversion of military resources that Ladysmith may yet be rescued.

A report from Lord Roberts described a brilliant cavalry raid by General French with three brigades of cavalry and a strong force of horse artillery in which three Boers' laagers were captured and a supporting movement, conducted by General Gordon, by which two guns were taken. The relief of Kimberley will evidently be the first work of Lord Roberts and a march upon Bloemfontein a sequel to it.

A special from Chieveley, Natal, dated Tuesday, says: "General Lytleton has succeeded to the command of the second division during the illness of General Clery, who is suffering from blood poisoning. Colonel Northcott, of the rifle brigade, temporarily commands the fourth division."

The fears regarding a Boer attack on Zululand are somewhat allayed by a special despatch from Durban, which says that a column of colonial scouts after a forced march has arrived at Eshowe in splendid fighting form. They were pursued several times during the march by the Boers, but succeeded in repulsing them.

The official list of the British casualties at Rensberg from Feb. 10 to Feb. 12 shows: Killed, four officers and seven men; wounded six officers and 14 men; missing two officers and eight men. The officers killed were Colonel Coningham of the Worcester regiment and Major Greddy and Lieutenants J. Powell and J. C. Roberts, all of them Australians.

To Aid the Boers.

New York, Feb. 15.—Fifty-seven men, nearly all young and stalwart, sailed on the French line steamer La Gascogne on their way to Boer lines in South Africa. Most of the men are Irish-Americans. The corps was recruited in Chicago by the United Irish societies there. They marched to the French line pier led by Major Edward T. McCrystal, of the Sixty-ninth regiment, and Patrick Egan, exminister to Chili. They presented a fine appearance and were frequently cheered as they marched through the streets. They carried American and Red Cross flags.

Have Plenty of Money.

New York, Feb. 15.—From Dr. Miller, in Europe, Secretary Val Sacle of the Boer relief fund committee has received a letter saying that the Netherlands Red Cross committee has all the money it needs at present, all ambulances needed having been provided and furnished through the Cape Town committee. The committee has therefore stopped receiving money for this purpose.

Invasion of Natal.

London, Feb. 15.—In the house of commons during the course of a reply to a question relative to the probable Boer invasion of Zululand, the secretary of state for the colonies, Joseph Chamberlain, said that the government had decided that if the native territories were invaded by the Boers the natives "will be encouraged and assisted in every way in defending themselves."

Will Be Prosecuted.

Brussels, Feb. 15.—As an outcome of the fight in the chamber of deputies M. Demblon, the Socialist deputy, who was removed by force from the house for threatening to box the ears of M. Wiart, a deputy of the Independent party, will be prosecuted for assault.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY—Heavy snow to-night; clearing and colder Saturday.

An exchange noting the phenomenal dividends of the Standard Oil Company, asserts that coal oil can be sold at a profit at one-half its present price. And yet there are some deluded Republicans who will point to the work of the Standard Oil Company as a proof that trusts benefit the people.

Mr. Taylor says he feels it his duty "to retain a sufficient number of these preservers of the peace (the State Guard) at this time, because of the violent attacks made upon this administration by the partisan press; because of threats made by this press and by hundreds of people who read these attacks." We do not believe Mr. Taylor can point to a single instance where a Democratic paper has advocated personal violence toward him or his administration. His conscience has simply made a coward of him.

One of the most glaring examples of a trust watering its stock is the Third Avenue Street Railway Line in New York, with twenty-eight miles, capitalized at $524,316 per mile, bonds and stocks. It pays 5 per cent. on $5,000,000 of bonds and 8 and 10 per cent. on $10,000,000 of stocks. The net earnings average at present almost $40,000 per mile. The Broadway cable line is much worse. It has 10.2 miles of track and is capitalized at $1,152,962 per mile, or ten times its real value. It is the most profitable surface line in the world. With municipal ownership of street railways in New York it is asserted that a three cent fare might be enjoyed with net profits of $3,000,000 a year.

Some Republican editors must imagine the people have short memories. Nearly every Republican journal of any standing denounced Mr. Taylor for his high handed and lawless actions in dispersing the Legislature and then chasing the lawmakers about over Frankfort with troops to prevent them from meeting. President McKinley and Attorney General Griggs called Taylor down finally on the outrageous and infamous course he was pursuing. But now, in the face of such a record, the Public Ledger publishes a column article in an effort to show Taylor has done nothing wrong, and was backed up by the Constitution in his insurrectionary and infamously dictatorial conduct towards a co-ordinate branch of the Government.

Our good Republican friends who say the candidate who has the majority on the face of the returns is entitled to the office should inaugurate in reform in their party. A dispatch from Washington brings the news that another Democrat elected by the people is to be kicked out of his seat in Congress by the Republican majority. It is the Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, of the Fourth Alabama district, who was elected by 1,500 majority, but the Republican Election Committee reported that William F. Aldrich, a Republican, was entitled to the seat. This makes three Democrats thus far thrown out by the present Congress. And so they go. The Republicans inaugurated this deplorable practice years ago, and are responsible to a very large degree for the very deplorable condition of affairs in the political world.

The Philadelphia Record says: The directors of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey on Tuesday last declared a dividend of $20 a share on the $100,000,000 common stock of the company, which means that the comfortable sum of $20,000,000, representing profits for three months, will be distributed on March 15th among the stockholders of record at the close of business on February 15th. In all the arguments that have been made against the alleged extortion of the Standard Oil Company none quite so effective as this announcement of a quarterly division of profits have been offered. Are such earnings legitimate? Ought not a larger share go to the use of the community which contributes the cash to make dividends, and which protects the great corporation in the safe conduct of its vast undertakings and in the security of its holdings?

Within the last two years there has been an increase in the price of oil of about 3 cents per gallon. It looks like $80,000,000 a year clear profit on a capital of $100,000,000 ought to satisfy the most grasping and most greedy of the combines.

OBJECT LESSON

For All Workingmen in the Rise in the Price of Oil.

[New York Journal.]
 The Standard Oil Company, owning or controlling most of the terrestrial oil laboratories, increased the price of oil some time ago 1 cent upon every gallon drawn from the earth.

In January the price was 11 cents. Many stores are now charging 12 cents, and there are indications that before the end of the year a further increase will be tacked on.

At present, however, the increase over the price of two years ago is about 3 cents per gallon—the price of an old-style postage stamp.

That does not sound very formidable. The poor consumer will continue to pay it without question. But let us see what it means to the Standard Oil Company.

The total yearly output of the company is approximately 1,700,000,000 gallons, of which $50,000,000 gallons are sold in the United States. In raising the price of oil from 9 to 10 cents, therefore, Mr. John D. Rockefeller taxed the poor consumers of this country $5,000,000 a year. A raise to 11 cents means $8,500,000 more, and a further raise to 12 cents means a total of $25,500,000 a year on Mr. Rockefeller's oil sales in this country alone.

Double this for his foreign sales and you have the neat sum of $51,000,000 a year poured by the poor people of the world into Mr. Rockefeller's coffers. The trust has just declared a quarterly dividend of 20 per cent.—$20,000,000 profits for three months; $80,000,000 a year.

In the meantime the world's great army of workingmen—the ground moles who dig coal, the hard-handed toilers in jumpers and dungarees, men of myriad lines of labor—dig on, sweat on, starve on, not realizing that by paying a few cents additional for their meager nightly light they are putting into the hands of their greatest enemy a two-edged sword, to be turned against them at every opportunity.

But what can the people do? They can do this: They can vote for men pledged to fight oppressive trusts. They can elect as their legislators, Congressmen and Governors men of the people who will stand by the people and for the people.

They can take the election of Senators into their own hands, and weed out the venal servants of trusts.

Above all, they can elect to the Presidency a man without Wall street affiliations—one who will gather about him a Cabinet of honest men.

Let all workingmen of the United States lay these things to their hearts, ponder upon them, and, when the time comes, act upon them.

GRIGGS WROTE IT.

President McKinley and His Attorney General Called Mr Taylor Down in His Lawless Course.

[W. P. Campbell in Cincinnati Post]
 FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 15.—There is perhaps more talk about United States Senator Deboe now than any other one man in Kentucky politics. People outside the State think Deboe is in bad odor with his party leaders for sending the telegram to Taylor demanding that the latter withdraw the troops and permit the Assembly to meet in the Capitol Building.

Deboe and Taylor understand each other perfectly, and Deboe is in full sympathy with Taylor in everything.

Attorney General Griggs wrote the telegram that has caused so much talk. He said he would send it if Deboe declined, and in order to keep the administration from taking a direct hand in the Kentucky affair, Deboe assumed the authorship.

Therefore, Kentucky Republicans will not give Deboe any trouble over that telegram.

It will depend largely upon Deboe as to how far Kentucky Republicans will go in punishing McKinley for his many moves to discourage Taylor in his fight on radical lines. Notwithstanding that Deboe is an administration man, the President has not hesitated to go against him, especially when Editor Roberts, of Lexington, a former Cantonite, wanted a friend looked after properly.

There is a strong probability that Roosevelt will get the Republican vote in the national Republican convention this year, and the entire South may follow suit.

The Howard-Dorset Company.

The Washington Opera House has this week an attraction of merit from the size and enthusiasm of the large audience last night to see the Howard-Dorset company in the five-act comedy drama, "For Love's Sake." The members of the company acted their parts in an exceptionally admirable manner. The company is a well balanced one. The vaudeville features are high-class and most entertaining. "Howard and Dorset" in their melange of fun and the Robbins in their pleasing sketch are exceptionally good, while Harry Hooper came in for a round of applause.

To-night "The Two Orphans," and a crowded house should greet this excellent Company. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. Matinee to-morrow afternoon.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

For the hundredth time, and then some, the resultless effort of trying to explain why the people will never cease going to see "Uncle Tom" might be made here and as usual fail. It is a fact that more people have seen this play in America than have ever seen any other play. Of course, as a basis of why, it might be said that more people have read the book upon which it is founded than ever read any other book, the Bible excepted; but this explanation does not explain why hundreds of people in every community go to see this play as often as opportunity presents itself. Other plays have as much pathos, as much tenderness, more comedy, better tragedy. It may be that the key is found in this, that none deal so much with human liberty. Be that as it may, age but adds to "Uncle Tom's" immortality. The excellent Davis Company will appear at the opera house Tuesday, Feb. 20th, matinee and night.

One Cent Fare.

Bradley's Ludicrous Reasoning.

[Indianaapolis Sentinel, Dem.]
The discussion of the Kentucky election case by Gov. Bradley comes very near being ludicrous. Every lawyer will appreciate the cold nerve of a man that will solemnly advocate to a Federal Court that it has jurisdiction of a State election contest, because the Fourteenth amendment provides that no State shall "deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law," and because a right to vote and have your vote counted is a department of liberty. Anyone can enjoy the judicial facetiousness with which Judge Taft, with equal solemnity, inquired whether the Fourteenth amendment conferred the right to vote on women. Of necessity, if "liberty" includes the right to vote, no State can deprive them of it, for they are "persons."

We are justly proud of it. We are also proud of its contents. You cannot but admit that our house is a satisfactory place to deal with. We sell you goods that are ALWAYS as represented. We cannot sell you inferior merchandise. Why? Because we do not buy that kind.

WE ARE NOW RECEIVING OUR SPRING STOCK, of which we will tell you all about as the season advances. Just now we want to say something about what we carry over in heavy weights. The advance in woolen fabrics is from 25 to 40 per cent. This advance you will have to pay next fall and winter SURE. Consult the woolen market and you will see that this statement is not at all overdrawn. Now do as we do. During our Mr. Hechinger's stay in the Eastern markets he secured many lots of high-class clothing (to be sure some of these lots were somewhat broken in sizes) at prices actually one half of the price if they were made now.

THESE GOODS ARE NOW IN,

and as we did not buy them for speculation, but bought them to give our patrons the advantage of the purchase, they are put right in stock and whatever you select and buy of them will save you more money than you have an idea they will. See the goods and prices in our windows, or still better come in and let us show you the advantage of buying a winter suit or overcoat now.

Those so far made differ among themselves by from 1 to 2 per cent. Their average is as follows: Pittsburg, Pa., to Wheeling, W. Va., 90 miles, 78 feet fall; Wheeling to Parkersburg, W. Va., 93 1/2 miles, 58 feet fall; Parkersburg to mouth of Big Kanawha, 80 miles, 47 feet fall; mouth of Big Kanawha to Cincinnati, 203 miles, 77 feet fall; Cincinnati to Louisville, 132 miles, 40 feet fall; falls at Louisville 25 feet; Louisville to Cairo, 306 1/2 miles, 94 feet fall. The total fall of the Ohio river, 905 miles, 419 feet. The fall from Pittsburg to Cincinnati, 466 miles, 203 feet. Fourth street in Cincinnati is 535 feet above sea level. Pittsburg proper, lying between the Monongahela and the Allegheny rivers, rises to a height of from 400 to 500 feet above the Ohio, and the Ohio at Pittsburg is about 260 feet higher than it is at Cincinnati."

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

Let no guilty man escape.

Gentlemen, the law has yet another hold upon you.

Goebel was grand in life and is glorious in death.

Republicans will not soon get another chance to show their "mettle" at Frankfort.

William Goebel died Governor of Kentucky, assassinated to the contrary notwithstanding.

One reason the Republicans held on so long was because they knew they wouldn't pass that way again shortly.

The idea seems to have been that if Taylor couldn't be Governor neither should Goebel; hence the shot from the Executive building.

Some of that murderous crowd might just as well remain at Frankfort, thus saving the expense to the State of having to be sent back.

Goebel's fame will grow brighter and brighter, while the infamy of those who incited his assassination will grow blacker and blacker.

Hadn't the Republicans have added assassination to their long list of the laws violated at Frankfort, it might have been better for them in future contests.

Don't forget for one moment that the horrible assassination of Governor Goebel now demands the consideration of all true men, and that the guilty ones must either adorn a tree or be adorned with circular stripes the balance of their lives.

The press may have to answer for many sins but it has to its credit a long account of good deeds done and it is a force for progress, civilization and the purification of the body politic.—Kausas City (Mo.) Star.

The Be-Han-Ne-Sey Grand Oriental Entertainment.

On Tuesday evening, Feb. 27th, the Be-han-ne-sey grand oriental entertainment will be given at the Christian Church. It consists of an illustrated lecture, descriptive of the manners, customs and costumes, religions and languages of the different oriental races within the Turkish empire. Mr. Be-han-ne-sey comes highly endorsed. Here are some press notices:

Chicago Evening Journal: His entertainment is exceedingly interesting. He is admired and beloved by multitudes in the city.

Chicago Inter-Ocean: His language is pure and enriched by that sweet, soft, peculiar enunciation that makes one hang on every word.

Chicago Northwestern Christian Advocate: The Behannesey oriental entertainment captivates an audience. Behannesey's lecture is deeply interesting.

Omaha Christian Advocate: The Behannesey oriental entertainment crowds the churches to the doors, and many go away unable to gain admittance. Every church organization which can possibly do so ought to arrange for Behannesey's presence.

Milwaukee Daily News: Mr. Phares Behannesey, assisted by a local cast of forty people, gave his grand oriental entertainment at the First Methodist Church and it was the best performance of the kind ever seen in the city.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin: The audience was told many things new and entertaining. The costumes are striking and correct.

Des Moines Register: The entertainment was instructive and entertaining, especially to all interested in Bible study or in the study of ancient religions. Many of the costumes were very rich, aggregating in value over $2,000.

Kansas City Times: Behannesey is an eloquent speaker. His delivery is perfect.

Council Bluffs Globe: No picture of that sacred land has been so vividly drawn; no picture has been so picturesquely colored as this one, drawn and colored by one who was born beneath its blue sky. The audience listened for an hour and a half with intense interest and attention.

In a recent interview Edison said: "I am working at present on a device for sending photographs by wire. I am perfecting the machine now and it will be a success. By this invention an artist can place his sketch in it and by attaching it to a wire send in the picture to his paper. This thing has been done before, but the machines have been too cumbersome. I intend to have this one made similar to a kodak."—National Rural and Family Magazine.

FIRST IN THE WORLD.

We Lead All Other Nations in the Drinking of Coffee.

We are the greatest coffee drinkers in the world. In 1897 we used 636,000,000 pounds of coffee. This was 10,000,000 pounds more than was consumed by all the combined countries in Europe. We have increased our consumption of coffee during the past year at the rate of more than a pound per person, and we now use fully fifty pounds annually for each person in the United States.

The amount spent for this coffee is enormous. During the last ten years we have paid out $75,000,000 or $7,000,000 per annum for coffee alone. The largest part of this money has been paid to Brazil. But it is safe to say that there is a good reason behind this enormous consumption of coffee, and the revolution which has taken place in the coffee trade of the United States during the last twenty years is an excellent illustration of the principle that Americans and American skill can bring prices to so low a point that the greatest luxuries may be enjoyed by the people of this country at the smallest cost. Thirty years ago there was not one pound of roasted coffee sold in this country where now there are forty.

In those days retail grocers bought and sold coffee in its green state, and each consumer roasted it for himself in an iron pot, over an ordinary fire. Of course it was impossible to obtain uniform results from such crude methods, and from lack of experience and stupidity the coffee was far less palatable, but there was one great advantage in this method, viz., that the coffee was freshly roasted and did not have time to lose the aroma and perfect strength by being exposed to the air. This is a feature of the coffee question to which too little attention has been paid. Roasted coffee loses in quality and aroma from the very moment it leaves the roaster. If it can be kept in a tightly closed receptacle this is largely avoided, but it ought never to be placed in a wooden box or bin possessing any odor, for coffee is peculiarly susceptible to surrounding odors, and when exposed to the air all its delicate aroma is rapidly dissipated.

There is a very famous brand of coffee now before the public called Lion Coffee, which has come into favor with consumers, not alone because of its purity and high quality, but by reason, doubtless, of the fact that immediately after roasting in the mills it is tightly closed in a sealed package, practically air proof. Thus the aroma is carefully preserved. All adulteration is impossible. No impurities can creep into the closed package and full weight is absolutely guaranteed. Without a word being spoken, the purchaser of a package of Lion Coffee has his guarantee of correct weight, uniform quality, absolute purity and unsurpassed aroma and strength at no extra cost, and it is little wonder that Lion Coffee to-day is rapidly supplanting the old favorites of the last ten years.

The purchaser of Lion Coffee may be assured that he is buying nothing but coffee, that it is of the highest grade, and that from the standpoint of economy he could not make a better choice. The preservation of its aroma and its wonderful natural strength combined, make it a most delicious beverage. A single pound makes forty cups. If our readers have never tried this coffee we urge them to do so.

A YEAR ago this week this section was experiencing some phenomenally cold weather.

The Kentucky Aguinaldo.

[Washington Times, Dem.]

The Kentucky Aguinaldo is a peculiar person. He has concluded to order his troops home and the Legislature to appear once more before him at Frankfort. But the Legislature is not under the orders of the Governor, and the Governor is not Taylor. It is probable, therefore, that both the executive and legislative branches of the State government will remain for the present where they are, at Louisville.
